

Golden Leaf Holdings Brings Jackpot Brand Premium Distillate Products to Oregon Market

PORTLAND, Ore., May 06, 2019 -- Golden Leaf Holdings Ltd. (“GLH” or the “Company”) (CSE:GLH) (OTCQB:GLDFF), a leading cannabis company built around recognized brands for the wellness and recreational markets, today announced that it will now offer its Jackpot premium distillate oil cartridge brand in Oregon. Previously only available for retail purchase in Nevada, Jackpot products were soft-launched in Golden Leaf’s Chalice Farms dispensary locations in Oregon on 4/20.

The Jackpot premium distillate cartridges contain strain-specific oil extracts available in two mood options: Party and Chill. The high-quality distillate used in Jackpot products contains over 80% THC and goes through small-batch testing for purity, potency, and flavor. It is incorporated into high-quality vape accessories and both Party and Chill product lines will be available in full gram cartridge sizes, as well as half gram disposable cartridges, priced competitively for consumers.

“Jackpot cartridges offer our customers the high-quality, small-batch tested distillate that they have come to expect from Golden Leaf brands at a competitive price point. Already a successful product line in Nevada, we believe that Jackpot will continue to have great success in our home market of Oregon,” said Erin Hills, VP of Sales Operations at Golden Leaf Holdings.

“Golden Leaf Holdings is committed to our mission of being the leading consumer-driven company focused on wellness solutions. The Jackpot product line is an important addition to our differentiated brand portfolio in Oregon as we continue to deliver high-quality products and superior customer value at all price points,” said Bill Kulczycki, President and CEO of Golden Leaf Holdings.

At launch, the products will be sold in Chalice Farms dispensaries in Oregon. Since opening in 2014, Chalice Farms has served the greater Portland, OR community with its chain of dispensaries selling its portfolio of premium cannabis products.
